Meet Our Featured Presenters

Chris Cavert

— Dr Chris Cavert is an author, a speaker and a professional trainer in the area of experiential adventure-based education focusing on how activities within this field help to develop and enhance pro-social behaviors and emotional intelligence – especially with youth populations. He has been actively educating and team building with groups of all ages for more than 30 years and has authored/co-authored sixteen adventure-based activity books. He leads interactive programs, trainings, and workshops both nationally and internationally, bringing the activities in his books to life. He works with Educators, Challenge Course Facilitators, Therapeutic Counselors, Social Workers, Recreational Staff, Camp Staff, Youth Workers, and Human Resources Professionals.

Chris will teach two class sessions:

Micro-Lessons: Opening Up Concept Conversations in Under 5 Minutes
PVC Teambuilding System

Chris's website: <http://www.fundoing.com>

Brian Brolin

has worked professionally as a Wild West show stunt man, high school teacher, wilderness program guide, ropes course facilitator, and recreation therapist. He uses storytelling, object lessons, magic tricks, games, and initiative activities to facilitate learning and growth. Brian retired from service with a Minnesota Dept. Of Corrections boot camp in 2017 and purchased a dilapidated 1880s ranch in Kansas to develop a mentoring and leadership program.

Brian will teach three class sessions:

A Mix That Makes Sense - Exploring how to sequence openings, games, activities, and discussions to help an event go somewhere.

Story Magic; Using simple and interesting illusions to teach and inspire.

What's In The Bag? - How to develop and use your own "bag."

Jalisa Danhof

has wanted to be a Camp Director since 5th grade, where she wrote in the yearbook that "Summer Camp Professional" was her chosen career. Now in her 10th year at Camp Newaygo as Assistant Director, Jalisa is still hooked on camping. She has served as the ACA National Emerging Professionals In Camping Chair since 2011. She is a contributor to the GoCampPro podcast and has served on the Buckeye Leadership Workshop Committee. Since her arrival at Camp Newaygo, the camping program attendance has increased by 100%. Jalisa is a feminist, a mom, and a wildly enthusiastic speaker.

Jalisa will teach one session:

5 More Minutes: Games, resources and activities to fill 5 more minutes
