

Teamwork & Teamplay

Building Unity, Community, Connection & Teamwork
Through Active Learning

Announcing the newest publication from Jim Cain. Find Something To Do! Filled with 140+ of Jim's favorite, newest and best team and community building activities from around the world, requiring no equipment at all. Perfect for camp counselors, college orientation staff, managers, coaches, wilderness guides, teachers, facilitators, trainers and group leaders of all kinds.

This book will show you how to take absolutely nothing and create something wonderful with it!

The first printing of this book sold 10,400 copies in just 4 days, and the second printing sold out even before leaving the printer! This is Jim's first self published book, and the first in his new 'Easy as 1-2-3 Series.' It has also been specially priced for camp directors, schools, youth development programs, universities and others wishing to purchase bulk copies for their staffs, students and program participants.

Single copies of the book are available now from www.training-wheels.com (1-888-553-0147), but if you would like to order 50 or more copies of Find Something To Do! contact Jim Cain at the email address shown below. Books will be shipped immediately upon payment.
